DANIELS SAYS HIS NAME WAS FORGED

Tells Senate Committee Adm. Sims Owes Him an Apology.

Washington, May 13.—Changes that cablegrams produced before the senate naval investigating committee during the testimony of Rear Admiral Sims here "a forged signature," were made today by Secretary Daniels. He referred to a message which Admiral Sims had presented as part of his criticism of the navy department and which purported to have been signed by the secretary. "Somewhere somebody was guilty of signing my name to an official dispatch, which the original Sims produced, shows I never designed," Mr. Daniels told the committee, "or of altering the dispatch by erasing the real signature and substituting Daniels." The concluding paragraph of the cablegram read, "In regard to convoy I consider that American vessels having armed guards are safer when sailing independently." Mr. Daniels testified that immediately upon reading the admiral's testimony he knew he knew he never sent such a cablegram and he started an investigation. The secretary said he finally found the original dispatch in the British embassy through which it had been sent and that the name signed to it was "A. E. Carter," by direction of the chief of naval operations. "Admiral Sims should produce the person who changed the signature," Secretary Daniels declared, adding that the admiral owed "an apology to me and to the country for the impression undertaken to be made by his testimony based upon false signature." Much of the secretary's testimony today was devoted to the controversy over convoying troop ships. Secretary Daniels charged that Sims withdrew the destroyer escort from the first convoy as soon as it arrived abroad, leaving the transports without protection for the return voyage. Admiral Hedges, in charge of the convoy system, doubted the authenticity of Sims' order directing the destroyer force to proceed to Queenstown and make an investigation both through the American embassy at Paris and the navy department. Sims, the secretary said, finally was instructed to protect the ships when they left France.

BANDS OF MASKED MEN RUN RIOT THROUGH IRELAND

Many Barracks and Public Documents Are Destroyed By Armed Mob

(By Associated Press)
London, May 13.—Reports of an unusual number of activities by armed and masked men in various sections of Ireland were received in London today. The reports began trickling in early in the morning and by noon had reached the proportions of an avalanche. As at Easter time many police barracks were attacked. Many barracks were destroyed. Most of those attacked were not occupied by the regular police force which had been sent to the larger centers. Incoming tax officers were again attacked and many documents destroyed. One such event was in the heart of Belfast. The Irish Office said at mid-afternoon that it had no reports concerning the events mentioned in the reports. Viscount French was in London today for a conference with Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader in the House of Commons with regard to restoration of order in Ireland. The reports of the demonstrations followed closely the announcement made by Bonar Law in the House of Commons yesterday that the military commander of Belfast was inaugurating new plans through which it was expected conditions shortly would be improved.

200 PHYSICIANS AT CONVENTION

Keynote Sounded for Elimination of Unlicensed Healers and Practitioners

Concord, May 13.—The elimination of unlicensed healers and practitioners of the art of medicine in this state, unless they can conform to the laws which graduates of all regular medical schools respect and follow, was the keynote sounded at the meeting of the New Hampshire Medical society which is holding a two days' session in this city.

The question of chiropractic will be one of the most interesting topics which will come up for consideration at this session, and the issue of depositions will, without doubt, take decisive action in regard to the requirements for medical education as relating to the different cults. A colloquy with the meeting here is the last one which is to come up at this point today, that of Dr. Fred H. Combs, D. O. of this city, which is a part of the controversy between the medical fraternity and the chiropractic.

Nearly 200 delegates were in attendance here at the opening session, which was called to order by the president, Dr. Augustus Shaw of Nashua.

Dr. Daniel P. Griffin of Whiteport, Conn., representing the medical society of that state, and Dr. William C. Harker, secretary of the Vermont Medical society, were in attendance. Dr. James A. Spaulding, the eye and ear specialist and a former president of the Maine Medical society was among the visiting delegates.

Dr. Spaulding gave a most interesting talk on "Progressive Medicine." Dr. Spaulding is today celebrating his 60th anniversary in the practice of medicine. Following Dr. Spaulding's address, the New Hampshire delegates recommended the names of Dr. Nelson Smith and Dr. Matthew Spaulding as candidates for the "Hall of Fame." Dr. G. M. Currier resigned as treasurer of the society on account of ill health and a letter expressing sympathy was sent by a vote of the body.

Alexander Bennett was chosen to have general charge of the local committee. A feature of this celebration is a ten-foot picture, to be shown in every town and city in the state. Seven feet are historical; one shows Maine Industries; another Maine Institutions; and the other beauty spots in our state. The historical picture will depict the life of Sir William Pepperell of Kittery Point and will be photographed here, and the scenes are to be made as near the original as can be done. Thus historical Kittery is again to be brought to the front in this big celebration which will probably take place in October.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of useless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and sinuses and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave the discovery to others who took it with what might be called unerring success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery by publishing the newspapers. Pluribick's Pharmacy has been appointed agent for Allen in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

IN MEMORIAM

The following tributes to two departed members of Storer Post have been written by Joseph S. Doolittle, patriotic instructor of the Post and one of its prominent members.

"During the past week Storer Post has been called upon to mourn the loss of two of its most esteemed members, Col. S. R. Marston and Lieut. John McDonald.

"Col. Marston was too well known by the citizens of Portsmouth to need any eulogy. As an officer in the Civil War he won honor and distinction by his bravery and efficiency, as one to whom almost boundless war funds were entrusted.

"Our Grand Army Post for many years have been wont to call him 'Our Grand Old Man,' and he was well worthy of that title. As a citizen, he was all that could be desired; conscientious in the discharge of every duty in all walks of life. We can truly say, headaches, dizziness, languor, etc., there are many causes, but when aggravated by a chronic derangement of the digestive organs, they are doubly disagreeable. A torpid liver or overburdened stomach, is not conducive to happiness.

Perfect health and comfort depend in a great measure upon the perfect condition of the stomach, intestines and allied organs.

Beecham's Pills have for sixty years been the favorite family remedy for stomach and liver ailments. Their action is easy and certain.

They eliminate the secretions of indigestible matter in the intestines, purge the liver, stimulate the tissues, send pure, invigorating blood through the system, energize the nerve cells. Health will soon return and morbid conditions disappear. That's why they are so popular, and why in the cause of health.

"We shall miss him in our gatherings, yet we would not recall him to suffer more pain and sorrow. May he who doth all things well send the Comforter to minister to hearts made sad by this event."

"Storer Post, No. 1, Grand Army of the Republic, realize the loss to its membership of Lieut. John McDonald, whose death occurred during the past week at Tilton, N. H.

"Lieut. McDonald was one of the charter members of Storer Post, and was for many years a well known resident of this city. He was a member of that splendid regiment, the Second New Hampshire Volunteers, which contained the very flower of New Hampshire's young manhood. He was one who participated in all of its numerous battles, and won a commission by his bravery and devotion to duty. Let us not forget that the Second New Hampshire had on its rolls the names of 2555 brave men, and was engaged in more than twenty battles, in which Lieut. McDonald did his whole duty bravely and manfully. As a citizen, he was upright, courteous and kind to all who came in contact with him in all relations of life. Today with the two millions gone on before, he is reaping the reward of a manly, noble life.

"Rest well, rest well, ye fallen brave, Largo was the offering your manifold gave.

Rest well 'til on some Memorial Day, With the stone from the sepulchre rolled away,

Ye shall rise to the light of Eternity Spring,

Where no darkening shadows around you cling."

Des Moines, Ia., May 12.—Representatives of the six New England conferences with visiting friends from all parts of New England tendered a reception last night to Bishop and Mrs. Edwin Hall Hughes of Boston in connection with the session of the Methodist National General Conference. A Thoughtless Injustice.

All are familiar with the cry, "Ignorant foreigner," which is raised in connection with so many of the troubles from which the country is suffering. Many of the labor troubles and crimes which are so disturbing in their effects on our industrial and social life are charged up to "ignorant foreigners," whereas in a vast number of instances those people are no more responsible than the moon.

When it comes to serious crimes, such as looting banks, embezzlement, defalcation, swindling, etc., not to mention murder, the records show that in many cases the offenders are not only Americans, but well educated; men who have had all the educational and social advantages the country offers, and who in spite of this go to the bad until they wind up as criminals before the courts.

These are facts which are verified almost daily in the columns of the press, and a fresh illustration is furnished by the trial of "Reds," which has just begun at Chicago. The number of defendants is large and among them are two graduates of Harvard University. One of these, a magazine writer and an author, has managed to get out of the country and is said to be in jail in Finland on the charge of smuggling. The other is the son of a wealthy and prominent eastern man. He has had every opportunity to lead an honorable life, but has been rounded up among those who are plotting against the government, and he freely confesses himself to be the "reddest of the Reds."

Facts like these should cause people to be more careful in what they say, and to know what they are talking about before they make charges which place large numbers of innocent people in a false light. There are thousands of foreigners in the country who are as honest and well-intentioned as the best of us, who are made to suffer by the careless and thoughtless cry, "Ignorant foreigner," which is so often raised by the unthinking.

Most of the troubles are charged up to ignorant foreigners, but when the facts are looked into it is usually found that the leaders are far from ignorant. They may be men who have come from other countries or they may be natives, but in nearly every case they are men of ability and education. The presence of two Harvard University men among the "Reds" of the Communist Labor party rounded up at Chicago is sufficient proof of this, and there have been many other instances equally striking.

Governor Allen of Kansas in a recent impromptu address before the American Newspaper Publishers' Association in New York declared that the rank and file of the miners in his state are quiet and peaceable men who would make no trouble if it were not for the agitators who stir them up and breed discontent among them. Judge Gary said the same thing at the time of the steel strike, and the large employers throughout the country know this to be true, if others do not.

Offending foreigners should be held accountable for their acts, but whole classes of people should not be made to suffer because of the misdeeds of individuals; and before the cry, "Ignorant foreigner," is raised it would be well to look over the list of culprits and see how many native-born and educated citizens there are among them.

Agents of the Department of Justice who recently conducted an investigation here found no evidence of profiteering among the merchants of the city, and they have had the same experience in other cities where a hue-and-cry had been raised. The retailers of this city are honorable men, as they have proved by years of honorable dealing.

If General Pershing honors this city with a visit before entering upon his tour of Maine he should be given a reception worthy of the man and the occasion; and let no one doubt that he will be.

Kittery is talking of forming a Chamber of Commerce, and in so doing it is on exactly the right track. Such a body, properly directed, is of great benefit to any town, and Kittery will make no mistake by going ahead with this commendable enterprise.

The season opens with every indication that the motor-cycle and the canoe will also fill their "quotas."

Labor union leaders in Massachusetts take Governor Coolidge to task for vetoing the beer bill, and advise him to "Walk humbly and keep his ear to the ground." They needn't worry. That's what he has been doing right along.

The Socialists want President Wilson to understand that they are going to roll up a vote of two millions next fall. Well, what of it?

Congressman Upshaw of Georgia declares with vehemence that the overalls movement is not designed to boost the price of cotton. But this will only lead some people to say that his name should be Upshaw.

A farm in Peabody, Mass., was raided the other day and the agents found a 60-gallon still and 350 gallons of moonshine whiskey. There appears to be a future for New England farming.

BICYCLE TRIP TO WALLIS SANDS

Thirty-five boys made the recent bicycle trip to Wallis Sands and had no end of a good time. The boys gathered at the playground and left very promptly at ten o'clock. Mr. Conning and Mr. Ernst accompanied them and Bob and Duke, the two mascot dogs must not be forgotten.

Clark and Wiggin captured several fish teams for a five minute game, then all hands gathered drift wood for the beach time bonfire. Hardly had we started on our sandwiches when one of the boys spied William Woods hanging an arm full of something down the beach. Several of the boys hurried to help him and none of the boys remained seated, for of course, all were interested in this surprise. All cheered when the bundle was uncovered and saw a bunch of bananas and a few pecks of peanuts. Mr. Woods certainly knew what was liked.

After the lunch and the cleanup, several kinds of games, games were enjoyed. By this time the rain which had held off with much consideration but control and came down in sheets. The boys were wet in no time to that degree where all felt like, could not be wetter.

When the "kitchen police" reported that all the lunch boxes and bananas had been thrown in the fire and the beach was all dry, it was agreed to try and decide what to do next. Gradually those present became conscious that most of the fellows had disappeared. A scout was sent out to find where they had gone. He returned in a moment and said they were all aboard a houseboat on shifts in the marsh behind the beach.

When the others arrived on the scene, a few of the boys who had been unable to get upon the stilts had pulled the planks off so that those who were in the houseboat could not get off. At least that was the idea of the boys on shore but they did not give due credit to the ingenuity of their marooned comrades who finally made a landing after ten or fifteen minutes of engineering.

Many of the boys then ran up to the life saving station for a drink. Bob and Duke made friends with the dog there but not until all three dogs had groveled a speech of introduction in tones which scared most of the boys.

"Let's go out on the rocks," suggested a strong-jawed lad, and without debate all ran for the ledges which now are being sprayed by the incessant tide. Caves, canals, pulps and wash-bowls were found. Some of the fellows also found a slippery rock or two and invariably they slipped and made a swift maneuver to prevent a ducking.

Then back to the rendezvous all hastened to take a vote on what to do next. All hated to go but as it looked like a whole afternoon of rain, common sense said "Let's go home," and the homeward trip began.

Next Saturday the ride will be to Stratham Hill. The boys will assemble

Headquarters Frank E. Hooma Post No. 5, American Legion
Portsmouth, N. H., May 12, 1920
General Orders No. 1

The time approaches when we in conjunction with our fellow Veterans Organizations shall by our thoughts and deeds perpetuate the memory of those who have passed on to the greater reward.

To those who fought in the days of '61 that this Country of ours might remain undivided, we stand with bowed heads in tribute to their valor and we realize theirs was the example of heroism and courage that we of later wars endeavored to emulate.

To the comrades of the War of '98 we lift a silent prayer for their honorable death.

To our comrades in the World War, our "buddies" we kneel in reverence to those who sleep in "Pleardy," along the Marne, Chemin des Dames, Verdun, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne. Their memory will be forever foremost in our thoughts and the ideals and principles for which they died will be with us always.

There are those who have unswayed the flag that in our home camps and others who have smelted passed into the Maker's Hands.

They kept the honor of the Nation unsullied and by their deeds America has gained the right to immortality, the love and devotion that prompted them is inscribed in the hearts and minds of all, which future generations will be proud to claim as a heritage.

Therefore in commemoration of these brave comrades the Frank E. Hooma Post No. 5, American Legion will unite with the several Veterans and Patriotic Organizations in the exercises of May 23rd and 24th, 1920.

BELIEVED SELF TO BE BLIND IN BOTH EYES

Washington, May 13.—Among blinded ex-service men there was a curious case of a negro who seemed to be blind in both eyes. He kept his eyes shut.

The man was adjudged eligible for readjustment under the Federal Board for Vocational Education and was about to be assigned to the Maryland Workshop for the Blind when another physician managed to persuade the negro that he could see.

The physician's report reads as follows: "He was suffering from psychoneurosis hysterical giving rise to marked blepharospasm and photophobia and amaurosis. All physical findings negative. Treatment by suggestion completely cured all symptoms and I discharged this man cured."

All of which, high-sounding language means in every day talk, that here was a man who thought himself blind and thought so hard that he made other people think so. When the doctor made him think he saw, he saw.

A banquet was enjoyed last evening at Hotel Rockingham by the cast of "My New Curate," the play given so successfully on St. Patrick's Day by Portsmouth Council, Knights of Columbus. Covers were laid for fifty and the occasion was marked by sociability and everyone much enjoyed the event.

The banquet was excellent and was served in elegant style. The menu included mock turtle soup, broiled white fish, oysters, omelette, chicken, roast turkey, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, string beans, fruit salad, vanilla ice cream, assorted cake and coffee.

Following the banquet dancing was enjoyed.

Grand Knight James McCarthy presided at the banquet. A pleasing incident of the occasion was a gift to the director of the play, Kenneth J. Miller, and to Corolla Murphy and John Macdonald, the two little children who so cleverly took part in the production.

The Portsmouth Knights of Columbus secured a marked success on March 17 in its presentation by amateur talent of the play, "My New Curate" and the large audiences who attended the performance on the afternoon and evening of St. Patrick's Day were enthusiastic over the production. DeWitt Clinton Commandery Twenty-Three Years Ago

This picture of the DeWitt Clinton Commandery, Knights Templar, taken on 23 years ago this month, will bring back many happy days in Masonic circles in Portsmouth. The other residents of the city will gladly note that many of this group, photographed on May 17, 1897, have passed on to their reward; about half of them are living today. The Commandery was photographed on the occasion of the visitation of Right Emminent John Hatch, Grand Commander of Grand Commandery of the state of New Hampshire and suite. The Emminent Commander was Mar. C. Mayo, Generalissimo, Gustave Boyer, Captain General, Richard L. Wadden.

This group included many of Portsmouth's stalwart business men who always took pride in any affair of this organization. The picture was taken on the steps of the former court house on Court street, now in the hands of the Boston Post, American Legion, which will finally be the home of the world war veterans.

DANCING CLASS HAS BRILLIANT RECEPTION

Portsmouth's fall was the scene of a brilliant juvenile party Wednesday evening, the occasion being the annual reception of the dance class by Miss Margaret Moses to her Saturday afternoon dancing class which has concluded its season.

The party was from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock and every moment was enjoyed by the little folks, while the gallery was filled with spectators and friends who viewed with interest the scene of beauty on the floor below. The little misses wore the daintiest of party gowns and the boys white jackets, bowties and blue coats.

Mrs. Moses' orchestra of seven pieces furnished excellent music and previous to dancing a reception was held, Miss Moses receiving the members of the class.

The mothers were Ray Sands, Everett Young, David Margeson, Emerson Trefethen, and Theodore Arendt.

Seats were placed at the front of the hall for the class and when all were seated the dancing began. The little folks with their mother's faces in their party gowns making a mass of color.

Miss Moses was assisted by Miss Dorothy Adams, who has been her assistant at the classes throughout the season. Assisting for the evening were Mrs. Marion Latham, Misses Marjorie Pickering, Dorothy Bond and Margery Sausser.

The grand march was led by Ruth Towle and Herbert Spangue, followed by Evelyn Louie, escorted by Frank Randall, the other members of the class following. The little girls carried white crochets on which were roses in pastel shades, and with streamers. The boys carried paper shakers in the pastel shades and the entire effect was beautiful.

The march was a feature event and this was followed by dancing until 10:30 o'clock.

There were no special exhibitions or no general dancing at the close, but the entire evening was played for the little folks. At 10:30 o'clock ice cream and cake was served.

The dancing of the pupils was marked by much grace and rare evidence of the fine work done by Miss Moses, who is well known as a teacher of talent and ability. Miss Moses has concluded her three classes for the season, one of them being a class in artistic dancing. She has also many private pupils and cannot be excelled as a teacher of the terpsichorean art.

Certified Milk

Is the finest raw milk and is very desirable. It is reasonably safe but expensive and is not sold or produced in Portsmouth for immediate vicinity. Farmers and dairymen know that tuberculosis occurs oftentimes even in the most expensive and best cared for herds of milk cows and because of this fact many breeders of fine stock insist that calves be fed only pasteurized milk.

Should milk for children and our own consumption be less safe-guarded?

CLEAN MILK PASTEURIZED

and is produced in Portsmouth in the most modern milk plant in New England and is sold at the same price as ordinary milk—15 cents per quart—which our central delivery and volume of business makes possible. It is more profitable for us to sell the raw milk (while the health laws permit it) and the customer is indifferent, but we recommend and prefer to sell a safe and sanitary product at a less profit. We respectfully solicit your patronage and invite inspection of our plant.

BIDDEFORD HIGH DEFEAT LOCALS IN BASE BALL

The High school baseball team were defeated by the Biddeford High at the play grounds on Wednesday afternoon by a score of 7 to 4. The visitors outplayed the locals in all departments of the game, and had a safe out of the opening inning. They shut out the locals until the seventh when Crowley pitched for Biddeford, weakened and hit by Cullinan, under an error off bridges, batted and a sharp single by Tobey followed by an error by Wilson netted the locals four runs, but they were unable to score in the two remaining innings.

Tobey pitched for the local up to the seventh when he was relieved by Britton after he had retired one man and had a strike on another. With good support he pitched good enough ball to win. Britton pitched two innings and Kitchpatrick pitched the last inning. Britton allowed three hits and Kitchpatrick one. There is good pitching material but the boys lack proper base coaching. Tobey played the star game, going from the box to second and he made two strikes. He looks like a find, although short, he handled himself exceptionally well. Hurley caught a good game and he has the makings of a good pitcher. Young covered first in good shape and Britton who played second handled the play station well. Kitchpatrick covered considerably. In center and apparently is available for box work. His injured shoulder, a relic of last fall's football, has improved wonderfully.

For the visitors (amphibians caught a great game and he hit the ball getting three hits, one for three bases, Carter at short and Darcy at first also played a nice game.

The High school will play the Newburyport High here this afternoon and Britton will probably start for the locals, as it would be poor judgment to expect Tobey two days running.

last season by living Baltimore and will still be ruled by him for Mr. Sweet. It will be recalled by horsemen and others interested in horse racing, that "The Ghost," after winning about all his starts during July and August of last year, ran into a snag when he went against Tom McWilliams' horse, R. H. Brett at the Rochester Fair. In one of the most sensational races of the season, Brett not only defeated The Ghost but several other fast ones.

OLD CLOTHES THE RAGE IN NEW ORLEANS

(By Associated Press)
New Orleans, May 13.—Threadbare coats, shiny trousers, last year's straw hats and resoled shoes were in order here today signaling the opening of the city's second organized drive of the high cost of living. Hundreds of business men appeared at their offices in once discarded garments. Flurry of all sorts was taken. Originators of the plan predicted a far more beneficial effect than resulted from the overall movement and expressed belief that the movement would spread.

Don't think the above is hopeless. With our skill and modern Oxygen Acetylene Welding Equipment we can make that wrecked crankcase whole and equal to new. We are specialists in repairing broken crankcases, transmission cases, frames, axles, cylinders, and all kinds of broken machine parts and castings. Our service will save you money, time and worry.

NEWS FROM THE ATLANTIC HEIGHTS

ATLANTIC HEIGHTS

The Ladies Aid Society of the Community Church held its regular meeting Wednesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. F. W. Dethlefsen, on Porpoise Way. After the usual business session the time was devoted to sewing for the coming fair, which will not now be held until some date in June, when the new church building will be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Wiseman of Raleigh Way is planning for a social gathering of the Rosemary Class of the Community Church Sunday school of which she is the teacher, this to be held in the pines on Saturday afternoon.

Through a misunderstanding it was announced in last night's Herald that the Salvation Army would hold an open-air meeting at the Heights and the band of the organization would render selections and a good sized crowd collected. The Salvation Army hopes to hold an open air meeting at the Heights however at a later date.

The volunteer workers will meet again at the church building Monday afternoon to assist in the work. The Ladies Aid Society will serve doughnuts and coffee to the men at the conclusion of their work.

Mrs. Turcotte has opened a store at the square, this adding another store to the thriving little Atlantic Heights colony.

One of the pleasantly anticipated social events of the week is the white party of the Parent-Teachers Association at the Atlantic Heights school on Friday evening.

R. W. McMahon is home from New York, arriving several days ago. Nothing has been heard regarding the fate of his four year old son, Paul, who is supposed to have been drowned, having last been seen near the Heights wharf.

The Navy Yard drive for the Home Service Fund of the Salvation Army is progressing favorably, according to Chairman A. J. Stewart and his secretary, Miss Teresa Paul.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the navy pay 100 is something like Champ Clark's dog.

That the cucumber will continue to be picked and the fields will yield 1000 regardless of the V-8 seed.

That Kittery people are anxiously awaiting the population figures.

That there are not many wild guesses on the new census figures.

That the sound of a bell which can be heard 45,000 feet through the water can be heard through the air only 450 feet.

That the largest pin factory in Birmingham, England, where something like 50,000,000 pins are manufactured every working day.

That the only thing free in the line of cuts today are the samples at food fairs.

That the Canby, Minn., News, publishing an accident says: "Miss Mike Thompson, while using the wringer, accidentally operated on Monday, caught her hand in the machine, injuring the member most painfully. While there were no bones broken, we are glad to say she has suffered more or less from the accident."

STRIKE AT THE ROOTS

of misery and you will KILL THE WEED.

That is the Salvation Army's method. It gets down to elemental poverty and suffering and roots it out. That is the sort of CHARITY THAT COUNTS.

That the press is certainly sympathetic in that regard.

That the fans are pleased at the prospect of the Sunset League.

That the Glasgow, Scotland, Herald tells us that the body of a boy 5 or 6 years old, was fished up by a dredge in the Clyde, and that it is believed the boy was drowned.

That one thing is certain, he was not killed by lightning.

That the Fairfield, Me., Journal had the following advertisement: "Lost—I lost my glass eye at the postoffice. Finder please return to Box 75. I need my glass eye as I no longer have the eyes of youth."

That it would be interesting to know just how much the lost eye would help out if found.

That the steamship Brookline from the Atlantic is said to have worked the best of any ship so far, on her trial trip Wednesday.

That familiarity is not always the sign of friendship but quite often the high sign of a candidate.
